

PROBONO
ITALIA

Il Sole
24 ORE
Media Partner

ITALY PRO BONO DAY - Third edition

Rome, Wednesday 25 November 2020 (10 am to 6 pm)

On behalf of Pro Bono Italia, Hogan Lovells, Legance - Avvocati Associati, Orrick, CILD, CSVnet, PILnet, European Pro Bono Alliance, European Pro Bono Initiative and TrustLaw, you are invited to the third edition of the Italy Pro Bono Day. The event, which will be held via Zoom platform, is part of the second edition of the European Pro Bono Week, running from 23 November 2020 and involving over 15 cities across the continent.

Please click here to RSVP

SESSIONS

All the sessions will be held in Italian. Details on how to attend via Zoom will be sent to each registrant by e-mail, before the event. To lawyers attending sessions 01 and 03 3 regular CLE credits are granted.

01.	02.	03.	04.
LEGAL TRAINING SESSIONS FOR NGOs AND THIRD SECTOR ENTITIES	36TH ITALIAN PRO BONO ROUNDTABLE	AFTERNOON SEMINAR In collaboration with 	CELEBRATION EVENT
10:00 - 12:30 am	12:30 am – 2:00 pm	3:30 - 5.30 pm	5:30 - 6:00 pm
NGOs, Third Sector Entities, and social enterprises are invited to free legal training sessions , provided by the lawyers of our network on the following subject-matters: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Emergency legislation related to Covid-19; • Corporate law (specifically focused on associations and non-profit organizations); • Reform of the Third Sector; • Bankruptcy law; • Labour law; • Personal data protection; • Real estate law; • Succession law; • Immigration law. 	Pro Bono Italia's members and network are invited to attend the last roundtable for 2020 . The Agenda includes the presentation of some NGOs new to our network , the presentation of the clearinghouses' annual reports (Coalizione Italiana Libertà e Diritti civili (CILD) and CSVnet), as well as that of Pro Bono Italia , and a speech of a representative of National Coordination of the Italian Legal Clinics' Board .	"Post fata resurgo: "lesson learned or (still) to be learned?" addresses the impact of the Covid-19 health emergency on the job world (also from a pro bono's perspective), economy and finance , how the use of technology is changing our lives, and the role of the organized civil society in directing the resources of the Recovery Fund . Moderators: Giovanni Carotenuto , President of Pro Bono Italia, Federico Anghelè , Head of The Good Lobby Italia, and a journalist of Il Sole 24 Ore (Media Partner of the event). Key-Speakers: Stefania Capogna , (Sociology of Labour, Associate Professor at Link Campus University); Stefano da Empoli (Economics, President of I-com and Professor of Political Economy at the Roma 3 University); Alessandra Losito (Finance, Managing Director for Italy of Pictet Wealth Management); Oreste Pollicino (Technology, Professor of Constitutional Law and LL.M. Director in Internet Technologies at Bocconi University); Alberto Luna (Innovation, Executive Partner of Talent Garden); Marco Ronchi (Digital Strategy, Professor of Digital Strategy at the School of Design and Managing Partner of the Master in Digital Strategy at the Politecnico of Milan); Antonella Inverno (No-profit, Head of Childhood and Adolescence Policies Italy-EU, Save the Children Italy); Antonino Galletti (Lawyer, President of the Council of the Bar Association of Rome); Pietro Galizzi (General counsel of a listed company, ENI Gas e Luce; and Cecilia Carrara (Pro bono Partner, Legance - Avvocati Associati).	Following the seminar, there will be a celebration event of the third edition of the Italy Pro Bono Day , as well as of the latest Pro Bono Italia's achievements.

European Pro Bono Initiative

EUROPEAN
PRO BONO WEEK

